DANIEL STANTON - (1955-1993)

Graduated from the University of Toronto Faculty of Music with a Diploma in Operatic Performance. He also studied at the Banff School of Fine Arts and Britten Pears School for Advanced Music Studies at Aldeburgh, England. Daniel had an active career as a tenor in operatic and oratorio performances and in music theatre throughout Canada. He was deeply committed to the development of contemporary music theatre in Canada and was co-artistic director and stage director for Opera Ora Now which Robert Everett Green noted in the Globe & Mail "may be the most vital small opera company in the land."

The scholarship is intended to honour Daniel's memory by continuing his commitment to Canadian music and theatre through support to exceptional Canadian talent enrolled in the Opera Program at the University of Toronto.

The organizers and family of Daniel Stainton would like to thank all those who have so generously given of their time, talent, and energy to make this benefit concert possible.

RICHARD GIBSON

Richard Gibson was born in Charlottetown in 1953 and is currently writing music and teaching at the University of Moncton, New Brunswick. He has studied with many prominent Canadian and British composers and his works have been performed frequently on Radio Canada and the CBC. In 1983, he was awarded the prestigious PROCAN award for young composers and he continues to receive honours and distinctions such as the New Brunswick Excellence in Arts Award. He is currently writing commissioned works for orchestra, percussion quartet and other ensembles.

MANY THANKS

We would particularly like to thank the artists who have volunteered their time and talent, and the University of Toronto Opera Division and Dean Paul Pedersen for providing the hall and their efforts in making the Benefit and the Scholarship a success.

Many thanks to Bruce Philpott "A Statement in Flowers" for the flowers on stage. Many thanks to Karen Hazzard, Robert Martella, Gordon McLeod, Tina Orton, Vivianna Zarrillo, Sara Lee of Canada and Country Style Donuts.
